CITY OBSERVES MODIFIED OPERATION IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19

High Point, N.C. (March 16, 2020) –The High Point Public Library, recreation centers, High Point Museum and the High Point Theatre will be closed to the public until further notice effective Monday, March 16, to protect our residents during the COVID-19 emergency.

Golf courses, marinas, permitting, transit and other core services like public safety and trash collection will continue as resources allow. Additionally, the Library's digital services will continue to be available. For more information on these services, please call 336.883.3638.

The City of High Point will continue to monitor and adjust operations as needed. Additional information and updates concerning COVID-19 and the City's response can be found at www.highpointnc.gov/COVID-19.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
