HIGH POINT TRANSIT GIVES AWAY MASKS AND VOTER INFORMATION

High Point, N.C. (Oct. 15, 2020) – High Point Transit will be giving away reusable masks, hand sanitizer and information on using public transit to get to early voting and election day poll sites at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 21, 2020, and Thursday, Oct. 22, 2020, at the terminal at 201 W Broad Avenue.

The masks were provided by the North Carolina Department of Transportation and the Federal Transit Administration.

Passengers are required to wear a mask or facial covering that covers both the passengers' nose and mouth and practice social distancing. HPTS remains fare-free.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America.
